

Bits of Wisdom

When everything seems to be going against you, remember the airplane takes off against the wind, not with it. --Henry Ford

There is never time to do it right, but there is always time to do it over. ~ Carl W. Buechner

Do your own thinking independently. Be the chess player, not the chess piece. ~ Ralph Charell

Have you ever wondered.....??

Why is the third hand on the watch called the "second" hand?

Why do we call it "after dark" when it's really "after light?"

How come "abbreviated" is such a long word?

Why do "tug" boats "push" their barges?

Why do we call them "stands" when they're used for sitting?

Why do we wash bath towels? Aren't we clean when we use them?

*"Casting all your care upon him;
for he careth for you.
1 Peter 5:7*

In He Still Moves, Max Lucado writes: "What matters to you matters to God. You probably think that's true when it comes to the big stuff. When it comes to the major-league difficulties like death, disease, sin and disaster -- you know that God cares. But what about the smaller things? What about grouchy bosses, or flat tires or lost dogs? What about broken dishes, late flights, or a crashed hard disk? Do these matter to God?"

I mean, He's got a universe of planets to keep balanced to watch over. He's got famines to fix. Who am I ingrown toenail? I'm glad you who you are ... you result, if something is important to God."

In labeling something as a "big" problem, we are implying that it will take God more effort to resolve it. To say something is a "little" problem implies less effort. The fact is, there are no degrees of difficulty to One who is omnipotent. God's all-powerful, and therefore, all-capable. He knows all the solutions, even as He knows all the problems. No problem, big or small, is beyond His love, concern, and ability. --God's Little Devotional Book on Prayer

Where's the Path?

There's a story of a man on an African safari deep in the jungle. The guide assigned to him had a machete and was whacking away the tall weeds and thick underbrush. The traveler, tired and hot, and a bit frustrated said, "Where are we? Do you know where you're taking me? Where's the path?" The seasoned guide stopped—looked back at the man and said, "I am the path!"

We ask the same questions, don't we? We ask God, "Where are you taking me? Where's the path?" And he, like the guide, doesn't tell us. Oh he may give us a hint or two, but that's all. If he did, would we understand? Would we comprehend? No, like the traveler, we're unacquainted with this jungle.

Jesus gives us a far greater gift. He says, "I am with you always, to the very end of the age." He gives us himself! —Max Lucado

Walking On The Water During Our Storms

Christ calls us to walk by faith through our storms. It seems like a big requirement until we realize Christ does far more than that- He walks on the water during our storms. God has placed all things under Christ's feet - including the waves that break relentlessly against us. He is in charge. —Beth Moore
