

How do you make God laugh?
Tell Him your future plans.

You're only young once. After that, you have to think up some other excuse.

If we could have all our wishes, we'd have double our troubles.

Oops!

The Sunday School teacher asked her class, "Does anyone know what we mean by sins of omission?"

Little Johnny replied, "Those are the sins we should have committed but didn't."

I don't want to merely possess a faith, I want a faith that possesses me.

Are you in love with God or just His stuff?

Musings

Are troubles causing you to LOSE your religion or USE your religion?

Work as if you were to live 100 years; pray as if you were to die tomorrow.

Look Who's Here!

Don't you think Moses, after a discouraging day, may have pulled open his tent flap to see the pillar of fire high in the sky and said, "Everything's fine. LOOK WHO'S HERE."

And what about Daniel, charter member of the Lion's Club? He laid his head on the mane of a lion and said, "I'm not afraid. LOOK WHO'S HERE."

King Nebuchadnezzar had those three fellas thrown in the fire but when he looked down he saw four. Shadrach and Company were just fine. Can't you hear them say, "LOOK WHO'S HERE."

And what of Elijah? Water was scarce and still he ordered twelve barrels to be poured upon the altar. God or Baal? Choose you this day whom ye will serve! O! Elijah just chuckled to himself and said, "LOOK WHO'S HERE."

David, the shepherd boy who would become King, looked at Goliath, loaded his slingshot, and said "Your time's up. LOOK WHO'S HERE."

Lazarus had been dead four days when Jesus said "roll the stone away." But Lazarus walked out of that tomb because Almighty God turned death on its heels and said "LOOK WHO'S HERE."

Remember when Walter Cronkite signed off every evening with, "And that's the way it is." A preacher friend of mine would say "No Walter, that's not the way it is, that's just the way it looks. LOOK WHO'S HERE."

One of these days -- it may be at morn when the day is awakened, it may be at midday, it may be at twilight, it may be per chance in the blackness of midnight" -- in one mighty shout around the world we will look up and cry "Hallelujah! He's back! LOOK WHO'S HERE!" --The Timothy Report

"If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself, that where I am, there you may be also." John 14:3

What we love usually manages to get into our conversation. What is down in the well of the heart will come up in the bucket of the speech. --Vance Havner

The following poem was found tucked in Sis Nona Freeman's Bible after she went to be with the Lord last year. It's safe to say that is Sis Nona could give us a final piece of advice today, it would likely be this:

There's work t o do . . . deadlines t o meet,
You've got no t ime t o spare,
But as you hurry and scurry . . . Always Say A Prayer.

In t he midst of family chaos, quiet t ime is rare,
Do your best, let God do t he rest,
And . . . Always Say a Prayer.

It seems like your worries are more t han you can bear,
Slow down, t ake a brea t her,
And . . . Always Say a Prayer.
